MAXWELL WILKS

2-day Pastel Workshop

Sat 17 - Sun 18 November 2018

When: Saturday 17 and Sunday 18 November 2018 From : 9:30 am - 4:00 pm

Where: MC Studio - Level 2, Manningham City Square, 687 Doncaster Rd, Doncaster (Melway Ref:47 F1)

Tutor: Maxwell Wilks was born in 1944. His drawing training started at the Victorian National Gallery School under John Brack and Ian Armstron. He studied Commercial Design at RMIT and oil painting for a short time with artist Shirley Bourne who introduced him to the theories of tonal impressionism. He was Invited to join a group of artists who had similar theories. The "Seven Painters" as they were known exhibited together for about ten years. Maxwell had his first exhibition in 1974 and since then has held over 30 one-man exhibitions in Melbourne, Adelaide and Sydney.
Since 1979 Maxwell has been travelling and working overseas. In 1982 he won the AME Bale Art Travel Scholarship, which enabled him to live in England for eight months in 1983. A former respected tutor at the Victorian Artists Society, Maxwell now holds occasional workshop weekends for advanced landscape painters. Having been a Council member of the Victorian Artists Society in Melbourne, he has now been elected a Fellow of the Society. Maxwell is a member of the Twenty Melbourne Painters Society. He is a dynamic pastel painter and gives inspiring workshops. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from a master pastellist.

BYO: Lunch each day (Tea and coffee provided) Materials list will be provided.
